

Part-time cook

Hospice South Canterbury is looking for a part-time cook to provide meals for patients in our seven-bed inpatient unit.

The position is a job share one, with hours and days to be on a rotating roster.

Hours will be a minimum of 12 hours a week but may often be 16 depending on workload, spread over four days and covering lunch times. Some weekend work is envisaged.

The successful applicant will:

- Be able to present meals to a high standard.
- Be able to naturally relate to people.
- Be able to work as part of a friendly team.
- Be punctual and reliable.

Previous similar experience is an advantage, but not essential.

Hospice is a special place to work with significant job satisfaction.
